JOCKEY CHORN CONFESSES. The Latest Chapter in the San Francisco

How the Chinese plunger Fong Ching, or "Little Pete," with Jockers Chorn, Chevaller, and "Dutch" Hinrichs, and Horse Owner Dow Williams, his confederates in fixing races at the Bay District track at San Francisco, had been ruled off has been told in THE SUN. "Little Pete's" circumstantial denial of wrong open confession made by Jockey Chorn, the star actor in the conspiracy to loot the bookmakers, to a San Francisco Chronicle reporter. ney Schreiber, Chorn's employer, induced the jockey to confess.

"The biggest amount of money 'Little Pete' gave me at one time was $600," said Chorn when questioned. "I was introduced to Little Pete' by a white jockey who has since gone away. There were a number of jockeys in the scheme, several of whom have not been

"I never pulled any horse, and the day that Scimetar beat Hidalgo a nose I put up one of the best rides of my life. We had 'Little Pete' down on Scimetar, but I rode Hidalgo out as I had a swell bet on my mount. I lost heavily, but 'Little Pete' gave me a 'divvy' or his winnings on Scimetar, as I told him that I was going to pull Hidalgo, and 'Little Pete' played the race under that understanding. As a mat-going to pull Hidalgo, and "Little Pete' played the race under that understanding. As a matter of fact, I lost $1,300, while I only received $400 from "Little Pete."

"The agreement was that "Little Pete' was to play Collins the day that he beat Hidalgo. I labored under the impression that Hidalgo would surely win, but Collins beat the horse on his merits.

"Little Pete' generally gave me_$200 or $300 at a time," continued Chorn, "He lost a fortune on Oakland the day I won with Hidalgo, [expained to him that it was unavoidable, and that I had to go on and win, as I did not wish to throw down Mr. Schreiber. I always made it a habit to get 'Little Pete' down on a horse that had a good chance. In the Sea Spray face it was cut and dried that I ke L. should win, and the 'white combination' played the horse for a good thing, but when Little Pete' got out he was dissatisfied with the price, and it was finally arranged that Sea Spray should win, and Sea Spray' did win, Hinrichs pulling Ike L."

Chorn also stated that "Little Pete" had a big staff, whom he paid from $20 to $200 after each job, according to the services they rendered to him. The full statement by Chorn, as printed in the Chronicle, shows that Chorn was ready to fool "Little Pete" whenever he could make a stake by so doing. He estimates that "Little Pete" gave up about $10,000 to the jockeys, Hinrichs has left san Francisco for St. Louis. He showed himself to be the smoothest worker in the combination, and is said to be many thousands ahead. The colored crowd had been after Hinrighs for some days before leaving, and he had gone around with a bodyguard.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 7 .- Amos Ruste, crack pitcher of the National League, is still at his home on Walcott street in this city, and if he says what be means he will likely be here all summer. Late this evening he was seen at his home, and was asked when he was going to New York. He replied, with a smile, that that question had not been decided, and perhaps would not be till the ball season was "The matter between me and the New York management," said he, "is now in the hands of my attorney, and has been properly placed before the National Board. If they do me justice I will play ball this season; if they do me justice I will play ball this season; if they don't, I won't," "Then you will not go to New York unless the fine of $200 is remitted?" asked The Sun correspondent.

"No, sir. I won't," was the decided reply; "not if I don't play ball at all this summer."
Friends of the pitcher say that he is very close-mouthed about the negotiations now pending, and that he will only say that the matter is in the hands of his attorney. It is said, however, that he is sometimes very impatient over the trouble, and they believe that he would not make a complete surrender of the point.

Baseball Cames Yesterday,

WASHINGTON, April 7. - Georgetown suffered her first defeat of the season this afternoon at the hands of Princeton. The score at the end of Georgetown's half of the seventh inning stood 10 to 11, but the game had to be called to allow Georgetown to catch the Norfolk boat, in order to play Yale to-morrow at Old Point Comfort. Accordingly the score was called back to the end of even innings. The score: georgetown, PRINCETOS.

BRITANNIA'S WHITE HEATHER CUP

Trophy on Time Allowance, NICE, April 7.- The yacht race to-day for the White Heather Cup, for large raters, was won by the Prince of Wales's Britannia on time allowance. The Satanita was second and the Ailsa third. The race was a grand one, the finish being intensely exciting. A steady clubtopsail breeze was blowing when the boats crossed the starting line and the wind held throughout the race. Some clever work was done at the start by the Britannia, but soon done at the start by the Britannia, but soon after the yachts got away the Alisa took first position and held it to the first mark. Then the Satanlia took the lead, but she was overhauled and passed by both rivais, going free.

The second round was a repetition of the first, with the exception that the Satanlia finished in second place. In the last round, the Satanlia was three minutes ahead of the other boats at the weather mark, but in the running and reaching the Britsnnia closed up the gap and won the race on time allowance, with thirty seconds to spare.

WHEELING.

A Split Between the L. A. W. and the A. A. U.-Other News.

The officials of the Amateur Athletic Union have decided that the existing articles of alli-ance between their organization and the League of American Wheelmen are unsatisfactory, and action will be taken at the meeting of the union, to be held in this city on April 18, to cancel the alliance.

This decision is the outcome of the recognition by the League of American Wheelmen of bicycle races held in conjunction with athletic games in Buffalo ten days ago, which the A. A U. refused to countenance. According to the existing agreement between the union and the league, the former has constantly refused to allow suspended or disqualified wheelmen to compete at athletic meetings. By this reason the L. A. W. has repeatedly refused to sanction bicycle races held in blacklisted athletic contests until at the recent indoor games held in Buffalo, when Chairman Gideon of the L. A. W. Racing Board, disregarding all previous rulings made on this subject, sanctioned the bicycle races.

when Chairman Guedou the bicycle races. This action has provoked the displeasure of the Amateur Union officials, and they propose to seek more ceuitable articles of alliance, which, if refused, will likely result in the A. A. U. taking up the control of amateur excle racing. The intimation that the union contemplates this latter step has caused wheelmen to wender if such a move would not prove costly to the L. A. W. at the present time.

Secretary James E. Sullivan of the A. A. U. Informed The Sun reporter yesterslay that the union accepted the action of Chairman Gideon in searctioning bleycle contests in unsanctioned athletic events, as an act prejudicial to the harmonious relations existing between the two bodies. Mr. Sullivan asserts that preliminary steps have been taken to seek new articles of alliance, and that official action will be taken on April 18.

Sullivan refused to confirm the suggestion that unless the A. A. U. secured a delegate to the National Assembly of the league that they would take up the government of bicycle racing, and that the intercellegiate Association branches would back up the A. A. U. The Secretary of the union believes that they should be represented in the National Assembly as the L. A. W. is on the A. A. U. Board.

President Elliott of the League of American Wheelmen has been communicated with, and it is expected will take steps to call a conference between members of the two organizations, with the object of taking steps to draw up new articles of alliance.

Chief Consul Potter of the New York State division of the league says that he believes the two bodies should have some agreement to recognize one another's rulings. He does not think the A. A. U. would be materially benefited by representation at the National Assembly, and does not favor such an idea.

He says he is convinced that the A. A. U. should take steps to communicate with President Elliott of the L. A. W. in order to abolish the present alliance and adopt a new one satisfactory to both sides.

New Jersey Elevens form an Organization and Adopt a Schedule.

The success attending the formation of the Metropolitan District Cricket League and the New York Cricket Association has induced the clubs of the neighboring towns of New Jersey to band themselves into a body and formulate a championship series of games. The organization will be known as the New Jersey State League, and will comprise the International A. C., Roseville, Kearny, Mile End, Perth

Amboy, Forest Hill, and Paterson clubs.

The schedule arranged provides for home and-home matches between all the clubs, the series opening May 23 and closing Sept. 12. Players in either the Metropolitan League or New York Cricket Association first elevens are debarred from taking part in the contests, and the Paterson Club, which is a member of the later organization, is allowed only to enter its second team. An interesting series of
